LATEST PUBLICATIONS OF THEO. PRESSER, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

2307. Cook, E. In Sunny Italy. Grade III. In the well-known tarantella style, full of lively movement, both hands participating.	30	2313. Gade, N. W. Boys' Dance. Op. 36, No. 3. Grade II This little piece in A minor and A major is bright and captivating, possessing a crisp melody as full of vigorous life as healthy hearty boys can be. It has some rolling appoggiaturas that play tag up and down the keyboard. It is easy.	30	2326. Dvorak, Anton. Op. 54, No. 1. Valse Gracieuse. Grade IV This is an exquisite composition, quite moderate in its technical demands, but all alive with that warm romantic beauty for which Dvorak is celebrated. It is well named Gracious Waltz. Its expression being graceful and suave in the extreme. It is in A major and kindred keys and a natural flowing melody is supported upon harmonies which have that startling yet agreeable character everywhere present in Dvorak.	30	2338. Hardelot, Guy d'. Without Thee (Sans toi). Song for Medium Voice. Grade III One of the popular modern French songs. Contains some useful passages for study in articulation. A great favorite with singers.	40
2308. Boscovitz, Frederick. Op. 298. Characteristic Tone-Pictures for piano. Grade II. Thoughts of Home (Reverie)..... Harvester's Dance (Pastorale)..... The Silver Bark (Barcarolle)..... The Merry Plover-Boy (Old English) The Cuckoo and the Wanderer..... Present Arms (Scene Militaire)..... As indicated by the collective title these pieces have technical value; nevertheless they are interesting from a purely musical standpoint, and will be found very useful in the earlier grades.	30	2314. Langers, Paul. Op. 12. A Ride Over the Plains. Grade III Excellent for modern, artistic playing. The rhythmic and melodic figures are those characteristic of Hungarian Kypay music.	30	2327. Shaw, J. Emory. Remembrance (Song for Medium Voice or Tenor). Grade III Partakes of the nocturne or serenade character. A persistent accompaniment figure lends character to the piece.	50	2341. Ellenberg, Richard. Op. 52. The Mill in the Black Forest (Descriptive Idyl). For Four Hands. Grade III A favorite piece with duet players, containing a number of fine descriptive passages. The general effect is quite realistic.	65
2309. Schmidt, Anton. Spinning Wheel. Grade III. This is a little bit of imitation music, standing in D, G, C, and A minor. It is in two-four time, and by a constant buzz of sixteen notes symbolizes the whirling wheel. There are several contrasts where the melody is repeated an octave higher that will be useful to young players.	40	2316. Lohner, Heinrich. Op. 134, No. 6. At Home (Zu Hause). Grade II Light finger work without octaves. Melodious, pleasing, and of value in technical development. This favorite composer always writes acceptably.	35	2328. Seifert, Udo. Op. 18. Polonaise. Grade V This is a brilliant and quite musical composition, opening with a well-marked and rhythmic period in D minor. This is followed by a passage of charming thirds in F. In the middle third is a series of bold modulations through C, A flat, D flat, and F. It closes with some vigorous chords. It represents fairly well both the martial and romantic sides of that art form whose beauty was made so familiar to the world by Chopin.	40	2343. Reinhold, Hugo. First Valse Pittoresque. Grade III This little piece is well suited as a recreation for young players. It stands in C major for the most part, though there is one modulation into E minor. The accompaniment consists of a base with answering chords, the right hand containing a simple melody with an unpretentious variation.	20
2305. Drea, Chas. C. Air de Ballet. Grade III. Written in triple rhythm, with well-marked accents, this piece is useful to promote an artistic style of playing; contains some interesting work in interesting passages.	40	2317. Beaumont, P. Bluettes. Grade II An excellent study and a delightful melody, with an accompaniment figure in triplets in the same hand. The second part has a left-hand accompaniment with a strong melody for the right hand. A fine teaching piece of pleasing character.	35	2329. O My Luve's Like the Red, Red Rose..... 2330. She is a Winsome Wee Thing..... 2331. Oh, Wert Thou in the Cauld, Cauld Blast..... 2332. Canst Thou Leave Me Thus, My Katy?..... 2333. Here Awa, There Awa (Wandering Willie)..... 2334. My Highland Lassie..... The text of these songs is by Robert Burns, and has been set in a most attractive manner by Mr. Gilechrist who is always successful in his Scotch songs. They will be of value to teachers as well as singers.	25	2344. Lang, Henry Albert. Cradle Song. Grade II A very artistic little lull, the left-hand work mainly in broken chords.	15
2306. Heins, Carl. Op. 15. In the Mountain Hut (In der Sennhütte). Grade II A delightful melody in the Alpine style. This is an exceptionally beautiful piece, one of the kind that will richly repay study.	35	2319. Engelmann, E. Op. 278. Frances Minuet. Grade II A charming melody with many beautiful effects. Very easy for the second grade and sure to interest the pupil.	25	2335. Lange, Gustav. Op. 53. Hortensia (Valse de Concert). Grade III This is a composition belonging to the order of brilliant salon or parlor music. It opens with an introduction consisting of octaves answered between the two hands. Then there follows a series of periods standing in D flat, B-flat minor, and A flat, each in the sixteen-measure form required by the waltz. There is a brilliant coda similar to the introduction. It will serve well as an octave study.	50	2345. Mozart, W. A. Pastoral with Variations. B flat. Grade VI This is a piece moderately difficult, and based on that natural treatment of the tones and dominant chords which we find characteristic of Mozart at all times. The variations are simple and graceful with a slight growing complexity in their rhythm. The third variation in thirty-second notes on page 6 is built on the pattern well known in flute-pieces. This variation contains a graceful ad libitum cadenza. The composition is in the key of B flat with digressions in F and E flat.	60
2307. MacClymont, W. E. Op. 10, No. 1. Spanish Dance. Grade II 2308. MacClymont, W. E. Op. 10, No. 2. Olivia Polka. Grade II 2309. MacClymont, W. E. Op. 10, No. 3. Edna Mazurka. Grade II Good, easy pieces for study as well as for recreation. Excellent ideas pleasingly presented in a manner to make their study of value. Will interest pupils and teachers.	40	2320. Meyer-Helmund, Erik. Op. 40, No. 2. Mazurka. Grade IV Exceptionally fine. Teachers will prize this in their work, and pupils will enjoy it. Good formative content.	35	2346. Adam, Adolphe. Christmas Song (Cantique de Noël). Grade III A favorite number for the Christmas season. This edition has been transposed to suit the medium voice.	20	2347. Förster, Rudolf. Cuckoo Song (for Medium Voice). Grade III The text is founded on the cuckoo myth which attributes the power of prophecy to the bird. It is semi-humorous and is well adapted to give variety to a program. It is in waltz time.	20
2310. Engelmann, E. Op. 270. Over Hill and Dale. Grade III A bright, brilliant piece, conveying the light-heartedness of summer wandering; technical features are short phrases and thirds.	40	2323. Pierre, G. Grandmother's Song (Chanson de la Grand-Maman). Grade II Full of short phrases, the whole welded together in the simple, straightforward and symmetrical style of the French chanson. An excellent study in phrasing.	30	2336. Reinecke, Carl. Op. 54, No. 10. Cradle Song. A flat. Four Hands. Grade II This is a little piece for four hands, each part containing one page. It is extremely easy, but considered as music it is pure gold. It is in two-four time, a simple quiet melody, and an accompaniment in steady sixteenth notes. It will serve excellently the purpose of teaching young players to keep steady time.	20	2348. Rickaby, T. L. Op. 20. Well Known and Favorite Melodies: The Star Spangled Banner; Annie Laurie; Yankee Doodle; The Last Rose of Summer; And Lang Syne; America; John Brown's Body. Grade I Nearly all patriotic melodies, easily arranged and valuable for pupils who need interesting music with strongly marked rhythm. Suitable for the piano or reed organ.	20
2311. Engelmann, E. Op. 270. Over Hill and Dale. Grade III A bright, brilliant piece, conveying the light-heartedness of summer wandering; technical features are short phrases and thirds.	40	2323. Pierre, G. Grandmother's Song (Chanson de la Grand-Maman). Grade II Full of short phrases, the whole welded together in the simple, straightforward and symmetrical style of the French chanson. An excellent study in phrasing.	30	2336. Reinecke, Carl. Op. 54, No. 10. Cradle Song. A flat. Four Hands. Grade II This is a little piece for four hands, each part containing one page. It is extremely easy, but considered as music it is pure gold. It is in two-four time, a simple quiet melody, and an accompaniment in steady sixteenth notes. It will serve excellently the purpose of teaching young players to keep steady time.	20	2348. Rickaby, T. L. Op. 20. Well Known and Favorite Melodies: The Star Spangled Banner; Annie Laurie; Yankee Doodle; The Last Rose of Summer; And Lang Syne; America; John Brown's Body. Grade I Nearly all patriotic melodies, easily arranged and valuable for pupils who need interesting music with strongly marked rhythm. Suitable for the piano or reed organ.	20
2312. Rickaby, T. L. Well-known and Favorite Melodies: Blue Bells of Scotland; Old Folks at Home (Suwanee River); Home, Sweet Home; My Old Kentucky Home; Maryland, My Maryland (O Tannenbaum); The Old Oaken Bucket. Grade I Polkae become such because of exceptional merit. They have a valuable place in the development of taste with many young pupils. This is a set easily arranged for home playing. They will be found to be exceptionally valuable for pupils who have as yet shown no marked appreciation of music.	60	2324. Godard, Benjamin. Op. 88. Valse Chromatique. 5th Valse. Grade V The music of Benjamin Godard flashes with French brilliancy and always sounds well. This waltz in G major begins with a series of sparkling, chromatic runs in the right hand; then the left hand plays the melody, at first in single notes, then in octaves with chromatic steps. Then comes a strain in C, characterized in appoggiatura. Later, chromatic scales and broken intervals are abundant. The piece is rather difficult and decidedly showy.	70	2337. Bohm, Carl. Op. 153. With Song and Mirth (Mit Sang und Klang). Concert Polonaise. Grade III Fully equal to any other of the popular pieces by this composer. Some fine passages in octaves. Remarkably brilliant.	50
